Kinsman Free Public Library

Borrowing Guidelines and Policies

CLEVNET Cooperation:

Kinsman Free Public Library is part of the CLEVNET library consortium. This gives you access to millions of titles!

To apply for a card:

A photo ID and proof of current address is required for all card applicants.

Ohio Residents: Free

Out of state residents: one-time $5.00 fee

Under 18 years must be accompanied by a legal guardian with a valid ID.

New cards applicants are limited to checkout 4 items until they receive their new card. Once the card is received in the mail, they are given full checkout privileges.

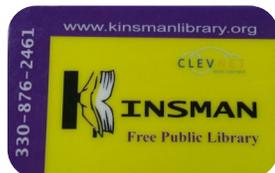

Card Holder Responsibilities:

The signer of any application is responsible for all material charged out on that card (adult and minor), and any payment/fees incurred on that card.

Please note: Library staff does not monitor or restrict a minor's choice of materials for any reason. The parent/guardian is encouraged to take an active role in monitoring what is being borrowed.

Report all lost/stolen cards immediately. Card holders are responsible for all materials charged on the card up until the time of notification.

Report all changes in name and contact information to the library.

Replacement cards:
Adult: $3.00
Minor: $1.00

You must present a valid Kinsman Free Public Library or CLEVNET member card to borrow materials, pick up holds, pay fines, and use Internet stations.

Kinsman Lending Periods:

7 Day Video/DVD/Magazines

14 Day All other materials, unless noted

Items borrowed from other libraries may have a different loan period set by the owning library. Refer to your checkout slip and account information for due dates.

Renewing Library Items:

CLEVNET will attempt to automatically renew your items one day before they are due. Restrictions (holds on the item, maximum renewal limit, the card is blocked, etc.) may prevent your items from renewing. CLEVNET will notify you if restrictions prevent renewal of your items.

You may also renew materials in person at the Library, by phone, and online through your CLEVNET account.

Returning Items:

Items can be returned to the Library at the circulation desk or in the curbside drop boxes. Please note: card holders are responsible for items until they are discharged inside the Library, this includes any damages that occur to items in the drop box.

Do not force or overstuff items in the drop box.

You can also return to any CLEVNET library.

Damaged, Lost Material:

Repair/replacement fees are charged and will include a processing fee. Minimum repair fee is $3.00 per item.

Overdue Materials:

$.10 per item, per day for books, magazines, audio books, CDs, & DVDs

$1.00 per item, per day for new release DVDs

$3.00 per item, per day for Library of Things

Overdue notices are sent automatically to card holders. After a set time, overdue item(s) will be considered lost and the card holder is billed.

Fees:

Any fee or overdue item on your record will restrict you from any online action within your account. A fee will restrict card from use.

Payment of Fees:

Cash or check (with a valid library card or ID) are accepted at the Library. Fees may be paid online through your CLEVNET account with a credit or debit card. Fees may be paid in full or installments.

Returned Check Fee: $30.00

CLEVNET Account:

Your CLEVNET Account allows you to renew items, place holds, and pay fines. You can log into your account using your card number as the username and 8 digit birthdate as the pin.

Reserve Materials/Place a Hold:

Place a hold in person, by phone, or online by logging into your CLEVNET account. You will be notified when the item becomes available by phone, email, or text. Items will be held at the library for 4 days for pickup. You will need the library card used to place the hold in order to pickup. Holds are not transferable to another patron's card.
